Interpreters Guide Lines

Interpreter Rights and Responsibilities

I. Interpreters Rights and Responsibilities

Interpreters Rights

- a) * Interpreters may opt out of an assignment for ethical reasons, compromise of impartiality or to avoid personal conflict. The DSPS director should be contacted in such an event.
- b) * When working alone in a lecture class, an interpreter has the right to a 10-minute break every 45 minutes. (These breaks will be coordinated, whenever possible, with the class instructor prior to the beginning of class.)

Interpreters Responsibilities

- a) * Interpreters will adhere to the Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf (RID) Code of Ethics.
- b) * The interpreter should communicate in the manner most easily understood or preferred by the deaf or hard-of-hearing person(s).
- c) * Interpreters will report no-shows or consistent tardiness to the Interpreter Coordinator of DSPS.
- d) * Interpreters may take a break when the students break if desired.
- e) * Interpreters will convey the information being presented in the classroom (i.e. what the instructor and students are saying). Unless otherwise established, Interpreters will NOT tutor.
- f) * Interpreters will notify DSPS in the event of their own absence.
