

---

Business Division Progress Fund

---

The Business Division features numerous laboratory-intensive courses that, to remain competitive, require expensive and up-to-date hardware and software. In the past, gifts to the Business Division Progress Fund have both assisted the faculty in the improvement of the classroom experience and provided direct support to Business Students in the way of scholarship support and emergency relief.