
Automotive Technology

Dress Family Scholarship – This scholarship supports a student in the automotive technologies program. This student may receive additional support when s/he transfers to a four-year baccalaureate degree institution. Academic excellence is an important consideration with a 3.0 or better GPA requirement.