

Woodland Community College – Colusa Outreach Facility

Measure J supplies $3.4 million for a permanent outreach facility in Colusa County, where computer training, Associate Degree coursework and student support services will be provided by Woodland Community College. It will also allow for the training of business and child development professionals who serve the Colusa communities.