FCMAT Analysis - District Size and Structure

- ▶ The size of the district (FTES) and number of colleges and learning sites is difficult to operate within CCC funding.
- ▶ Based on how funds must be spent, it is very difficult to meet the 50% law and provide comprehensive support services.
- ▶ Declining enrollment will increase the difficulty once emergency conditions and the student-centered funding formula (SCFF) hold harmless provisions end.

FCMAT Analysis

▶ Personnel Levels:

- ▶ Try to keep personnel levels aligned with students served. This is the basis of our funding as a CCC.
- ▶ Once hold harmless sunsets, available funds will not be sufficient to meet future financial obligations.
- ▶ Multiple colleges and learning sites will make this difficult unless FTES increases.

▶ Data Integrity:

- ▶ The district has done an excellent job improving data during this process and developing new reports.
- ▶ As funds become scarce, decision making becomes more important.
- ▶ Presenting institutionalized reports that are fully validated and “look” the same each time they are presented is critical to building trust and facilitating valuable conversations.

FCMAT Findings/Recommendations

- ▶ Fixed Cost Increases and COLA
- ▶ Retiree Health Benefits
- ▶ Full-Time Faculty Obligation Number (FON) - Teaching Balance
- ▶ Classroom schedule efficiency and personnel sizing
- ▶ Personnel Levels
- ▶ Overload
- ▶ Release Time

FCMAT Findings/Recommendations

- ▶ Fixed costs - Develop a comprehensive fixed cost report. Expenses have shifted from one-time expenses to ongoing expenses systemwide. Fixed costs are quickly changing throughout the system.
- ▶ COLA discussions - Pass through COLA to the salary schedule is no longer an option for traditionally funded CCC's. Pension and OPEB reform has changed the way CCC's distribute new revenues.
- ▶ Retiree benefits - Discuss future employee retirement benefits. The current agreements are impacting the district's ability to recruit and retain talent. Retiree benefits are funded from ongoing unrestricted general fund revenues regardless of their funding source while employed. Categorical programs, and personnel charged to those funds, continue to rise.
- ▶ FON - Improve the balance of full-time/part-time teaching loads. Funding higher than required full-time faculty impacts available funding for recruitment and retention efforts.

FCMAT Findings/Recommendations Cont'd

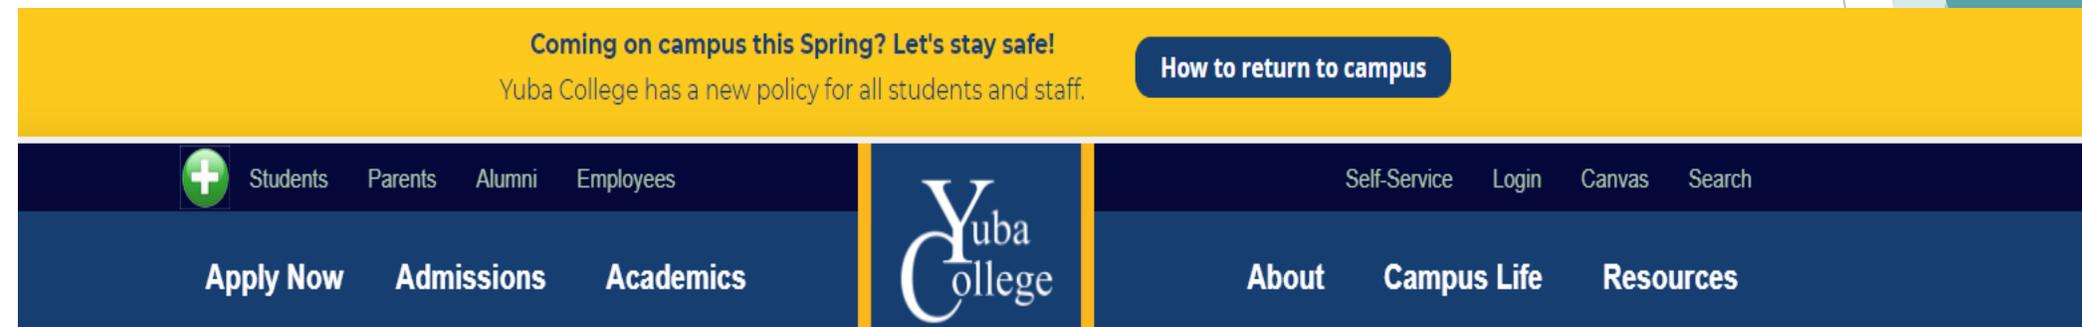

- ▶ Classroom Efficiency - The district structure is contributing to low classroom efficiency. The number of colleges and learning sites is the main contributor to lower than standard class sizes.
- ▶ Look for ways to increase the average class size (districtwide) gradually over time. Large and rapid increases will quickly reduce the cost to deliver the course schedule (less sections) but will put tremendous pressure on meeting the 50% law.
- ▶ Try to improve classroom efficiency enough to take advantage of innovative instructional ideas and concepts. Give students more opportunities to take courses that traditionally are cancelled due to low enrollment.
- ▶ Further investigate the trend of release time and its impact on classroom efficiency.

FCMAT Closing Remarks

- ▶ The Yuba Community College District is doing a good job managing budgets considering its size and organizational structure. The district will have to grow back to previous enrollment if it wants to continue to provide services and course offerings at current levels when hold harmless funding ends. The analysis identified several areas of the district operation that reflect unsustainable trends. All areas need to be considered when developing a plan. Focusing on a single area will negatively impact others. This is a balancing act. This will not be a simple task as the promise to serve numerous communities should continue to be fulfilled.

NOTICE OF RISKS AND PROTOCOLS FOR STUDENTS REGARDING COVID-19

Yuba Community College District's highest priority is the safety of its students and employees. While we prioritize safety, our students may determine that they wish to continue their studies, which may expose them to individuals who have developed or are receiving treatment for COVID-19. All students should be aware that they are at risk of exposure to the virus that causes COVID-19.

The District provides the following targeted guidance about COVID-19 safety to its students to allow them to consider risks and take certain precautions before continuing required face-to-face instruction.

Notice of Risks in Courses:

o Students attending Yuba Community College District may be exposed to the virus that causes COVID-19.

o By attending Yuba Community College District, students may knowingly or unknowingly transmit the COVID-19 virus to family members in their home or to with whom they have close contact.

o Students attending Yuba Community College District may expose and potentially transmit the virus that causes COVID-19 to others, and thus may place young children, elderly or immunocompromised family members and others they come in contact with at high risk for infection and illness.

Student Services led Boo-tober event at Yuba College

#YCProud Spotlight

- ▶ Toche has been with the college for 24 1/2 years, starting out as a student worker. After serving as interim for six months, Toche was recently appointed to the Director of EOPS & CalWORKs. The promotion was from the Assistant Director role which she served in for six years.
- ▶ Anabel continues to champion the efforts to offset food insecurities for our students by ensuring we have a vital CalFresh program and that our Dusty's Pantry is providing meals to students at least twice a week.
- ▶ Her team was the primary initiators of the Boo-Tober event, which was our first college community potluck since the pandemic. EOPS/CARE and CalWORKs, and other departments decorated our Student Services Area for Halloween, which was highly festive and a return to more celebratory activities. Toche's team, led by Silvia Gonzalez, is also getting us ready for the Marysville and the Olivehurst Holiday parades, where college representatives will be marching with pride.
- ▶ Mrs. Toche is an organizer for the CCCEOPSA conference. This year she served as a Tri-Chair in coordinating the conference. Anabel is also the EOPS Regional Coordinator (Lead) for Region 2 for the Chancellor's Office.
