

YUBA COLLEGE

Yuba College opened in 1927 and serves Yuba and Sutter Counties as a comprehensive community college with 10 athletics programs, a theatre, CDC, and more than 90 programs including a broad CTE portfolio. The College has partnerships with Sacramento State and UC Davis through 2+2 agreements and Avenue B and Avenue M programs. Yuba College is an HSI and serves a diverse community and student population of over 8,352. This year, Yuba College was recognized with the Excellence in Placement Award by the Campaign for College Opportunity. The College has a 160-acre main campus located in Marysville, California and a 20-acre Sutter County Center just north of Yuba City.

THE LOCATION

The Yuba Community College District (YCCD) spans eight counties and nearly 4,192 square miles of territory in rural, north-central California. YCCD serves a total of 11,988 students across all of its locations in the northern Sacramento Valley, including Yuba College, Woodland Community College, and through its educational centers in Lake County, Sutter County, and outreach programs in Colusa County.

The District provides all individuals in our diverse communities access to high-quality, affordable higher education that is responsive to student needs. Our mission is to inspire and advocate for student success through our passion and commitment to teaching, learning, and social justice.

WOODLAND COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Woodland Community College (WCC) became the second college in the Yuba Community College District when it was granted its accreditation in 2008, making it California's 110th community college. The college serves approximately 6,205 students annually, and is a HSI within the Sacramento region. The college has two outreach centers in the City of Williams and in the City of Clearlake.

In addition to a strong focus on transfer programs with partner institutions, WCC offers a variety of modalities to support distance learning, Career Education (CE), and other life-long learning opportunities. The college is poised to open a new Performing Arts and Culinary Services Building in late 2023 and offer competitive men's and women's athletic programs. Students also have access to an array of student support services such as financial aid, academic counseling, TRiO, a DREAM Center, a newly opened Career and Transfer Center, Food Pantry, and other critical retention and support services.
